Dicing with death!

■ LYME Regis harbourmaster Grahame Forshaw has repeated warnings to residents and visitors against 'risking lives' in rough weather after this photographer was captured taking photos on the high wall of the Cobb as huge waves battered the harbour on the first official day of British summer time. IAN Collins began his passion for Dorset through artist John Craxton's love of the county. His friendship with Craxton has led to the opening, by David Attenborough no less, of the biggest exhibition of the late artist's works at the Dorset County Museum. For most, Craxton will not be a familiar name – but the great and good in the art world will know of him. His work features both Dorset and Crete where he spent some of his happiest years. He was dubbed a neo romantic, a label he hated and was a life-long friend of Lucian Freud, also meeting and being inspired by Picasso. Ian Collins, a former regional journalist, had known Craxton for a decade and is his art executor. He has completed one book on Craxton, with another likely to follow.

● HOW did your love of Dorset start?

Through John who, by all accounts, was a tear-away in his school years, and continued in much the same vein when he was sent to Dorset to live. He's unusual in many ways but claims to have had only three official records of himself – a birth certificate, a passport and a death certificate. He lodged with an artist uncle and aunt in an ancient cottage in the Cranborne Chase, close to the Pitt Rivers collection which he was given free access to. I met him through Prunella Clough. He seemed to know everyone and was a great friend of Lucien Freud.

At our first meeting, in about 2000, at a wake, we got talking, went to the pub and had supper. I asked him that evening if I could write his biography but he said no, as he had done to other similar requests... but I started writing it, secretly.

● WHAT was it he, and you liked about Dorset?

It seemed to appeal to his nomadic personality, but also a love of wild, unspoilt places. Dorset suited him because of its relative remoteness – much as Greece did later in life, but also because it was better for his health. As a young man he was said to have pleurisy but it was probably TB.

● HOW long have you been interested in art?

Almost as long as I can remember; I studied economics at Manchester University but spent all of my time looking at paintings. When I finished I joined the Eastern Daily Press as a journalist but carried on spending too much time looking at art and studying artists. I did all the routine things - court, councils, inquests and the rest of it and for quite a time worked in press gallery at the House of Commons. I stuck it out for 34 years but was also writing books on the side and arranging exhibitions.

● HOW long has this Dorchester exhibition been in the making?

It's the biggest ever retrospective of his work and features around 120 pictures and objects. It's the biggest collection of his work to be seen in one place since an exhibition in London in 1967 when a critic in The Times described him as an artist who struggled against happiness. I came down to Dorset after he died in 2009 and, in a way, I've been putting the exhibition together ever since. In a way he's taken over my life. There's something about crossing the border into Dorset. As soon as I get here I know I'm somewhere different and ancient, which is very much reflected in the work that John did here. His Dorset works are often dark but there's a great colour burst in the work from Greece.

● ARE there other exhibitions planned?

I'm working on one in Cyprus which will then go on tour throughout Greece and there's a show in Athens planned next month. Much of this exhibition will go to Salisbury after the Dorchester event finishes in September.

Council hands out £20,000 in grants

FUNDS SPLIT BETWEEN 22 LOCAL ORGANISATIONS WHICH REQUESTED A TOTAL OF £43,000

LYME Regis Town Council has handed out more than £20,000 to 22 local organisations through its annual minor grants scheme, with the Citizens' Advice Bureau receiving the largest grant of £3,000.

The bureau was one of six organisations deemed by the council to be in "critical need" and therefore received the full amount requested to provide an outreach service in Lyme Regis.

Other groups in "critical need" and receiving the full amount requested were Axe Valley and West Dorset Ring & Ride receiving £2,000 for community transport; First Dorset Credit Union - £200 for advertising and marketing; Victim Support - £250 to recruit volunteers in Lyme Regis, assist with expenses and provide support and supervision; Lyme Regis Development Trust - £875 to provide a defibrillator at the Cobb; and Life Education Wessex - £150 to support a visit to St Michael's Primary School.

Other non-critical organisations receiving 100 per cent of the total they requested were:

The Hub Toddlers - £1,100 to expand arts and crafts recourses and toys/equipment; the Over 70s Christmas Lunch Committee - £300 towards this year's event; and Lyme Regis Brownies - £254.94 to purchase a flag, pole and parachute.

By FRANCESCA EVANS
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

Most other organisations, which were able to bid for up to £3,000 from the council, received just over 47 per cent of the amount requested. These were as follows (the amount requested is written in brackets):

Lyme Regis Youth Football (£1,700) - £804.95 for waterproof training tops; Lyme Regis Museum (£1,000) - £473.50 to create a special exhibition commemorating the end of the Second World War; St Michael's Primary School PFA (£3,000) - £1,420.50 for playground equipment; Lyme Regis Pantomime Society (£1,000) - £473.50 to support their annual production; Lyme Regis Musical Theatre (£3,000) - £1,420.50 for microphones, costumes and orchestra for upcoming production of "Evita"; LymeForward (£2,300) - £1,089.05 to establish a health and wellbeing group; Lyme Regis Majorettes (£3,000) - £1,420.50 for new uniforms; Lym Valley Croquet Club (£1,200) - £568.20 to build a small pavilion; Lyme Regis Football Club (£3,000) - £1,420.50 to build lean-to roof over supporters' seating area; Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club (£2,655.49) - £1,257.37 for computer equipment, a water remover and netting for mobile cricket cages; Lyme Regis Development Trust - Digital Lyme (£3,000) - £1,420.50 to provide a community wi-fi network; Get Together Club (£1,086) - £514.22 for day trips.

The council agreed to offer £500 to the Lyme Regis and St George's Twinning Association - just 16.7 per cent of the £3,000 requested towards the cost of erecting a statue of former mayor of the town, Admiral Sir George Somers, who went on to colonise Bermuda; a project they have recently resurrected.

Two organisations received no funding - the King George V Playing Field in Uplyme requested £3,000 to resurface the tennis courts but councillors felt this did not directly benefit Lyme Regis and they should apply for funding from Uplyme Parish Council; and the Town Mill Trust requested £3,000 for a community garden sculpture but councillors felt the application did not include enough detail.

In total, organisations requested more than £43,000 - more than double the council's budget. After all grants were agreed, the council had £5.92 remaining from its £20,919.15 budget.

"It's a foolhardy thing to do"

THE sunshine was nowhere to be seen on the first official day of British summer time on Sunday, but that didn't put off visitors to the Cobb in Lyme Regis. Harbourmaster Grahame Forshaw has repeated warnings against walking along the Cobb in high winds and rough seas after acclaimed local photographer Richard Austin caught these images from a safe distance of another snapper on the high wall and people attempting to dodge waves below.

Mr Forshaw said: "To get on the high wall he would have had to walk past signs warning him against doing so in poor weather. It's a foolhardy thing to do, really."

"It's not encourageable. In fact, I actively discourage people from doing this. People are responsible for their own safety, but it is not just themselves they should think about because if they fall in they put other lives at risk as the lifeboat then has to go in."

Mr Forshaw added that the high winds were not likely to drop before Friday.

RICHARD AUSTIN

CORRECTION

APOLOGIES for last week incorrectly reporting that moving Lyme Regis Bowling Club and converting its existing Monmouth Beach site for the use of car parking or chalets would cost the council £1.5million.

The figure of £1.5million is actually the capital receipt of how much the council would make from selling off chalets on the site, with an additional annual revenue of £24,000 or £55,200 if it was used for car parking.

However, the council has said it has made no decisions on the future of the lucrative Monmouth Beach site, and is simply looking at all its options and how to get best value for the ratepayers of the town.

The error on last week's front page of the View was due to a misunderstanding of the council's report; apologies for any confusion caused.

Outrage over obscene graffiti in wet concrete

OBSCENE graffiti written into wet concrete on a wall in Lyme Regis has caused outrage on social networking website Facebook.

Photos of the graffiti, which covered a large portion of the freshly-plastered wall in the Jordan area along the River Lim, were posted on Facebook on Saturday and soon sparked debate. The photos cannot be reproduced in this newspaper due to their offensive content.

Residents described the act as "disgusting" and showing "a sad lack of respect", with many also sympathising with the owners who will have to bear the cost.

The debate also led to complaints about a lack of police presence in the town.

PCSO Luke White said that the incident had not been formally reported to the police, but said if anyone wanted to report any damage or had any information relating to it, they should call police on 101.

Town mourns operatic society stalwart and late author's PA

JEAN Wellings, secretary of the local operatic society and former PA to acclaimed author John Fowles, died on Tuesday, March 17th unexpectedly after a short illness.

She was born in Liverpool in 1927 and had a happy childhood with her parents and brother. Her ambition was to be a maths teacher but she was unable to get into Liverpool University and subsequently trained as a shorthand typist.

Jean moved to Lyme in 1955 when her then husband, Ernest, secured a teaching post at Lyme Regis Senior School. She became a secretary for A. Paul and Sons, a local estate agent, and worked there until it was taken over by Lawrences.

At that time she worked with Jean Howlett and they remained friends throughout her life. She moved on to work as a school secretary in Crewkerne until taking early retirement due to medical reasons.

Although her mobility was difficult her mind was very active and she wanted to use it. When the opportunity came along to work as PA to acclaimed local author, the late John Fowles, she took it and thoroughly enjoyed every minute of it.

Her main love was classical music and everything to do with plants and gardens. Jean sang with Chard Light Operatic Society from 1974 to 1984, during which time she was honorary secretary for four years, but also acted as orchestra secretary for several years as well.

OBITUARY JEAN WELLINGS

Jean was also Parochial Church Council secretary for the Furnham Road Church in Chard for many years. She took an active part in Lyme Regis Operatic Society, recently renamed Lyme Regis Musical Theatre, and remained as their secretary until her death.

Jean was able to live in her own home independently until the last month of her life. She liked nothing better than listening to her music and looking out on her garden.

Jean planned her order of service and requested that if at all possible The Reverend Christopher Rowley take the service and Philip Scriven play the organ. Her wishes were granted when they both did just that, giving her a "wonderful send off". Her daughter, Trish, wishes to thank them both for giving their time.

She also thanks all those that attended the service. Finally, Trish would like to thank the following: Sarah Fowles for her friendship and heartfelt tribute to Jean, Shirley Williams for organising the refreshments, Dilys for tending Jean's garden so beautifully, Jo and Danny Hopkins for all they did for Jean, Sarah HR for her caring and kindness and Juliet, Jacky, Cheryl, Non, Pauline, Michael and Winnie for being there for Jean.

Beatrix Potter theme for this year's Easter Bonnet Parade

LYME Regis will hold its traditional Easter Bonnet Parade on Easter Sunday, April 5th.

Judging of hats and bonnets will be held at 2pm in Lyme Regis Baptist Church and the parade will set off at 3pm.

This colourful, spring event, now in its 17th year, attracts a large crowd both in Broad Street and along the seafront.

This year, children and adults are invited to decorate their hats and bonnets with a Beatrix Potter theme. Beatrix Potter stayed in Lyme Regis and wrote "The Tale of Little Pig Robinson" set in the fictional town of Stymouth, which is in part based on Lyme. She stayed in what is now the Mariners Hotel in Silver Street and described Broad Street as "a lovely Street".

Prizes are available in five age groups as well as those for ladies and gentlemen and special prizes for the best entry under five years. The Treetops Cup will be presented to the best entry overall.

Prizes will be awarded immediately after judging in the Baptist Church and the parade will proceed down Broad Street and finish on the seafront, led by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, and will include Lyme Regis Majorettes.

Organiser from the Lyme Regis Regatta & Carnival Committee, Alan Vian, said: "We look forward to seeing a great crowd of people, many of whom come from quite a distance for this special occasion, wearing Easter Bonnets or simply lining the streets to watch the spectacle."

Young sports stars pick up View From award

THE View From Lyme Regis award for sporting excellence was presented to two Woodroffe School students at the recent sixth form awards night.

Sixth form students Harry Rumens and Mollie Hansford picked up the prize after impressing teachers with their commitment and skill shown in sports.

Harry has been ever-present in school rugby since joining Year 7 and, with no senior rugby team this year, he is delighted to have finally made the senior football team.

Head of sixth form Jim Thomas described him as being a "great support" throughout the year with the junior rugby teams, having been involved in coaching and accompanying them to tournaments.

Harry also plays rugby for Sidmouth and Devon Under 18s and is studying A-level PE, leisure studies and geography. After completing his A-levels he hopes to spend a year as a teaching assistant in a sports boarding school in New Zealand, before going on to university to train as a PE teacher.

Mollie is a dedicated athlete who has trained hard throughout her time at Woodroffe, particularly in running and swimming with Bridport Baracudas. She is also part of the Cotley Hunt Pony Club team and represents England at international level.

Tetrathlon is a multi-discipline sport consisting of pistol shooting, swimming, cross country running and cross country riding. At the National Team Championships at Bishop Burton, Mollie was the top intermediate English competitor and second in the UK, riding her own horse The Beeker. At this event England was first and the Cotley Team were also winners.

Mollie was also a member of the victorious England senior team at Adare, County Limerick in the Ireland international event where she was placed sixth overall. At this event she had to ride a borrowed horse so the challenge was even greater.

Based on this success, she was selected for the GB tetrathlon team for an international competition in Perth, Western Australia. GB won the event, comprehensively beating the Irish and Mollie was fourth overall, only six points from a podium place.

Mollie has received a conditional offer to study sport, exercise and physical activity at Durham

University and has recently taken up fencing to enable her to compete in pentathlon events in the future.

A number of other awards were presented by Mr Thomas to sixth form students on the night, for commitment and effort in particular subjects, extra curricular activities and special achievements.

Rotary supports cyclone victims

THE Rotary Club of Lyme Regis recently held a collection in aid of the victims of a cyclone that destroyed much of the island country of Vanuatu in the Pacific Ocean.

Rotarian John McCallum said "few of us can appreciate the horror of 200 mph winds or the resultant destruction", adding that the club was delighted to have raised £310 which will be sent to Somerset-based Rotary charity Water Survival Box, which sends boxes including a water filter and pump and other essential items to disaster zones around the world.

The charity will also be sending specialist packages "School in a Bag" for the children on Vanuatu who have lost everything.

Mr McCallum added: "Thanks to all who donated to this collection on the day, but if you missed it and would like to contribute then perhaps you would consider sending a cheque."

Cheques made payable to The Rotary Club of Lyme Regis should be sent to John McCallum at Langton, Colway Lane, Lyme Regis, DT7 3HE.

THE Rotary Club of Lyme Regis held its sixth annual charity quiz night in Wootton Fitzpaine Village Hall, near Charmouth, on Saturday, March 28th raising nearly £1,100.

Proceeds from this year's quiz will go to the 1st Charmouth Scout Group to help fund the re-building of their hut.

Rotarians would like to thank Dorchester Chocolate Factory Shop of Poundbury for donating a large chocolate Easter bunny which was raffled off on the evening, substantially boosting the total raised.

President Mark Tredwin said: "Thank you to all who attended and contributed to making this such a fun filled evening and a successful fundraising event.

"Supporting the youth of the area has been a focus of this Rotary year, and contributing towards the Scouts is yet another example of this. We are delighted to be able to help in the re-building of their facilities."

Clothing shop re-launches with new name and brands

A CLOTHES shop in Lyme Regis celebrated its re-launch on Saturday, having changed its name to better reflect its clientele.

The shop on Marine Parade, which was formerly known as Frills, has now been named Ruby & Oscar as it stocks both men's and women's clothing.

Owners Carol Crowhurst and Gary Linham (pictured above), who have been running the business since November 2013, have also recently introduced some new clothing lines, such as Hatley, as well as a range of home interiors including small items of bespoke furniture handmade by Gary.

The couple currently live in Somerset but hope to move to Lyme Regis shortly.

Speaking about the decision to take on the shop, Carol, who previously worked in Clarks headquarters, said: "I just wanted a change and we have always loved the area, it's so relaxed."

"The past year has been a big learning curve but we've loved it. The local traders around us have been really friendly and we have had a lot of support from family."

Triathlon group add to impressive record

A NEWLY-formed local youth and tri-star triathlon team competed in the Bath Duathlon on March 21st, adding more top positions to their already impressive start to the 2015 season.

Florence Swan, 16, Ben Greenslade, 15, Phoebe Clark, 11, Abi Greenslade, 10, and Alice Clark, 8, all from Lyme Regis, compete across the South West in events that combine swimming, cycling and running and also in single discipline races.

Already this year, team members have achieved medal positions for the Junior Grizzly in Seaton, Dalwood Three Hills, Sidmouth Aquathlon, Taunton Deane Aquathlon and Bath Duathlon. They hope to continue their success in the forthcoming South West Championship Triathlon series which starts at the end of April.

The team is supported by CycleLife Bike Shop in Axminster for bikes, servicing and accessories and SpinCycle Studio Cycling for coaching support with Travel4Fitness looking after logistics and travel.

Ian Bruton from CycleLife in Axminster said: "Helping keen, talented youngsters to be more competitive is extremely satisfying."

Triathlon is one of the UK's fastest growing sports, with the British Triathlon Federation reporting that 196,303 individuals took part in events during 2014. The triathlon format is swim-cycle-run with the swim either in open water or in a pool. Distances vary depending on the age group and typically the 15/16 year old athletes would swim 400 metres, cycle between 10 to 20km and finish with a 2.5km run.

To find out more about the team's achievements visit the SpinCycle Facebook page.

Sherlock Holmes author moves adventures to America

A LOCAL author, known for his own Sherlock Holmes stories based in Lyme Regis, is on the verge of publishing his 13th book.

After a three year absence, David Ruffle, who also works in Quality Corner in Broad Street, returns to the world of the famed detective with "Holmes and Watson: An American Adventure".

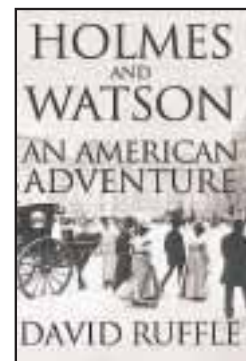

David's previous four Sherlock Holmes novels have been set in Lyme Regis and Dorset, but in this latest book the action moves to New York and Fall River, Massachusetts in 1897. Holmes, whilst involved in teaching detectives of the New York Police Bureau, becomes embroiled in the gruesome case of the Scattered Dutchman.

Holmes and Watson are then asked to look into the Lizzie Borden affair, five years after the event. Lizzie Borden was charged and tried for the murders of her father and step-mother, both despatched brutally with an axe. It was one of America's most notorious crimes and Lizzie was acquitted, but the debate over her guilt continues to this day.

When Holmes and Watson arrive in Fall River, they are met with the news of two very recent murders, both committed with an axe. Is Lizzie Borden to blame?

"Holmes and Watson: An American Adventure" is available locally at Serendip in Broad Street ahead of its general release.

Vintage emporium opens in West Bay

A LARGE scale project to create a unique shopping and eating experience has brought life back to a derelict warehouse and courtyard in the heart of West Bay and opens its doors for the first time this week.

Young local entrepreneurs Dean and Abby Souter, the couple behind Molly's Den Vintage Emporium in Shoe Lane, present their brand new venture, The Customs House, as a vibrant new family shopping and eating experience in the heart of West Bay.

Dean said: "The last six months have been hard work, but our aim is to create something special here in West Bay.

"With our investment here we have created jobs for local people that are not just seasonal and it is just the start with our long term aim to encourage other businesses back into West Bay and make it a thriving economy year round."

The Customs House, which has created more than 30 jobs including apprenticeships and helping people with learning difficulties get into work, will feature over 100 traders and local artists across three floors filled with art, vintage and retro collectables.

Outside in the courtyard there will be a range of food stands – including gourmet burgers and hot dogs, smoothies, ice cream, fruit & veg and baked goods – with a wine and cocktail bar, and tables and chairs for alfresco eating with a children's play area to keep the little ones amused.

Abby said: "We are trying to create somewhere where we would like to go, somewhere to take the kids, do some shopping, grab some food and even bring the dog with us.

"Bridport has a real artisan vibe and we wanted to reflect that in The Customs House."

The Customs House's grand opening will take place on Friday, April 3rd with a fun filled weekend of bands, fun for the kids, and a free Easter egg while stocks last.

It is located next to East Beach car park in West Bay with two entrances – one off the car park and one on the main road, just a stone's throw away from the beach and harbour.

The Customs House will be open seven days a week throughout the year.

The Cricket World Cup ends...

AND our Australian players pack their bags for the flight to Uplyme.

I'm pleased to welcome Richard O'Halloran as our 'foreign' player this year. Richard plays for First Grade side City United and has represented the Tamworth & District Cricket Association representative side.

This is one of the strongest country cricket competitions outside Sydney, and graduates include current Australian squad member Josh Hazelwood, and former Northants County Captain Jeff Cook.

Richard is a middle order batting all-rounder - an ideal combination following our promotion to Devon Cricket League Division 1C. He recently won the "man of the match" award in Tamworth's cup final over Maitland.

Alex Taylor is also due back. Alex made a great contribution to the side in 2013 and could not wait to get back to the UK weather and play his cricket in Devon.

Skipper down under

Club Skipper Steve Batey spent the winter on holiday - sorry, working and representing Deepdene Bears Cricket Club of Melbourne, whilst taking in the Cricket World Cup, diving on the Great Barrier Reef and watching the Australian Grand Prix - OK for some, eh?

Young player exchange with Melbourne

Steve's enthusiasm and unsuccessful attempt to destabilise Australian cricket during the world cup, cemented the ties between Deepdene

News from Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club

By chairman Ian Thomas

Bears and Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club.

We are now entering into an agreement which will offer young cricketers from our club the chance to spend six months in Melbourne gaining valuable experience of the game of cricket - Aussie style. A return exchange of two Deepdene players each year will be able to experience Devon League cricket.

This is a real, once in a lifetime opportunity for our young players.

A trust for development of sport in Uplyme & Lyme Regis

Former Cricket Club chairman, Paul Messer, is establishing a trust to help support our cricketers.

The club is now inviting applications from younger members who wish to go to Melbourne to work and play cricket in the appropriate Deepdene XI in Autumn 2015. This invitation is only open to club members and probably ideally suited to those aged between 18 and 25.

The club committee will select up to two players, in conjunction with Deepdene Bears, to represent the club. Those selected will be able to apply to the independent trust for sponsorship, before packing their bags for the flight down to Oz.

Uplyme student named president of Oxford Union

A STUDENT from Uplyme has recently been appointed president of the prestigious Oxford Union.

Olivia Merrett, 20, attended Colyton Grammar School, finishing in 2013, and started her law degree at St John's College, Oxford, the same year. She is hoping to pursue a legal career with one of the smaller, specialised legal companies in the city.

Before being appointed president of the union - the world's most famous debating society - she held the positions of chairman of the Consultative Committee and chief of staff. Olivia (pictured) now follows in the footsteps of former presidents, including Ted Heath, Anthony Wedgwood Benn, Robin Day, Michael Heseltine, Benazir Bhutto, William Hague and Boris Johnson, and will chair debates and host speakers.

The Oxford Union Society, founded in 1823, is a debating, educational, and social society, membership of which is open to all matriculated members of Oxford University, and many other notable educational establishments.

It frequently plays host to in excess of 12 heads of state per year, as well as countless actors, writers, film stars, musicians, celebrities and politicians.

News in a Nutshell

Summer starts at museum

THE summer season starts at Lyme Regis Museum with new opening hours this week.

The museum will now be open from 10am until 5pm Monday to Saturday and 11am until 5pm on Sundays.

A new exhibition by photographer Joe Boggan starts in the Rotunda today (Wednesday) and the new "Help us Grow" group will be running a cake and home produce stall on Wednesday, April 8th and more events are planned for the rest of the season.

Fossil and Mary Anning walks will continue throughout the summer and rock pooling will resume shortly. Learning officer Chris Andrew will be giving regular "Know Your Fossils" talks in the museum on many Saturdays.

Easter bunny hunt at mill

A FOUR foot rabbit named Wholemeal has hopped over to the Town Mill in Lyme Regis to launch the Grain Bunny Easter Treasure Hunt.

Adding a bit of extra fun to the daily tours of the working water mill, children can seek out the ten bunnies, named after different milling grains, which will be hidden around the building. The hunt costs £1 to enter and if children collect the names of all 10 bunnies they will receive a bar of Town Mill chocolate.

As the Town Mill costs around £1,500 a week to maintain and relies on donations, adults are asked to make a voluntary donation for tours, which will take place every day over the Easter holidays from 11am to 4pm at weekends and 11am to 2pm weekdays.

Lyme Regis Brewery going from strength to strength

LYME Regis's smallest and newest bar, The Brewery Tap at the Town Mill, has been named one of the top five pubs in Lyme and East Devon area by Britain's best beer judges – even though many residents don't yet know that the pint-sized bar exists.

The Lyme Regis Brewery Tap has been voted one of the area's most popular pubs, with locals and visitors flocking to the little local for a pint of the town's best.

The Campaign for Real Ale (CAMRA) voted The Tap in the top five local pubs in its recent poll.

The cosy bar – maybe the smallest in the West Country – has won five-star status for the quality of its award-winning beer range, brewed on-site and served straight from the barrels.

"It's great news to be voted one of the best bars in the area," said Tap manager Pat Hicks.

"It's a tremendous accolade coming on top of all the beer awards we have won."

Mr Hicks said much of the success was due to visitors enjoying the novelty and the freshness of a tasty pint enjoyed in the Town Mill's ancient courtyard.

"You can't get a pint fresher than ours and many customers have never before had a pint tapped straight from the barrels of a brewery. Visitors love it," he said.

"People are coming to The Tap from all over the world. The Town Mill is an enchanting site and visitors like to sit out with a glass in the cobbled courtyard, enjoying the history and peacefulness of the mill – it's like a pint back in time."

"We're Lyme's newest bar and we're delighted to already be up there in the top five with some of our longest-established and best-loved pubs – especially as a lot of locals don't know that we're here and open every day," said brewery director Julian Shaw.

"The Tap has become so popular with visitors that we're going to be opening in the evenings soon. Many customers haven't tasted ale brewed on the premises before and they love the freshness of it.

"But we don't just sell our beer as pints. We're also selling it in bottles, casks, beer-boxes, mini-kegs and by the jug. And by popular demand we're selling online too."

All of the beers will soon be available on the website – www.lymeregisbrewery.com

The news comes as a great fifth birthday present for Lyme Regis Brewery. Started by a small group of local ale-lovers "over a few pints", it is now achieving local and national success.

Lyme beer is booming – last year the brewer sold more than 120,000 pints and business shot up by nearly 50 per cent. The brewery now sells its ale to hundreds of pubs, shops and restaurants across the UK.

"It's been our best year yet. We're thrilled by the popularity of our beers," said brewery boss Richard Surtees at a Town Mill party thrown last week to celebrate its success.

"As well as putting our Tap on the map, what's pleasing about the CAMRA poll is that most free houses that top the list are serving Lyme Regis Brewery beers.

"The word is getting out there that Lyme Regis Brewery beers are fantastic. We've now got recognition for both our beers and for The Tap"

The party – which was entertained by local ukulele band The Lyme Luggers – launched Lyme Regis Brewery's latest beer, Dorset Pearl.

Already reckoned by experts to be the town's best ever pint, Dorset Pearl sold out in its first appearance at Lyme Regis Beer Festival over the weekend.

"Locals seem to love Dorset Pearl. We're delighted with the welcome it's received," said brewery director, Richard Doney.

"All the beers we brew are real ales, or craft beers as some call them. We use only natural, traditional ingredients, and they mature and develop their unique flavours in the cask. They are all handmade in small batches by our master brewer, using only the finest natural ingredients."

"We have some exciting new developments coming in the next few months. We're brewing a craft

CAMRA'S top ten bars in the Lyme/East Devon area are:

1. The Rock Point, Lyme Regis
2. The Volunteer, Lyme Regis
3. The Royal Lion, Lyme Regis
4. The Axminster Inn, Axminster
5. The Brewery Tap at the Town Mill, Lyme Regis
6. The Ship, Lyme Regis
7. The Red Lion, Axminster
8. The Pilot Boat, Lyme Regis
9. The Old Inn, Kilmington
10. The New Inn, Kilmington lager that will be available for the summer – a first for us.

"And we're promoting brewing experience days where the public can come and brew their own beer with us.

"Right from the start we have had only one aim in mind; to brew beers that we love drinking ourselves. We're delighted that ale-lovers from all over the country love them too. The future for Lyme's beer has a great head on it."

THE annual Lyme Regis Beer Festival, held in the Marine Theatre on Saturday, was deemed another great success. Beers were on offer from Lyme Regis Brewery, Art Brew from Chideock and even from a brewery in the Netherlands which bought equipment from the now closed Lyme-based Mighty Hop Brewery, run by Mark Jenkin, who was still heavily involved in organising the festival. Live music entertained the crowds all day, finishing with headliners Coast, and a selection of food from local producers was also available.

Public consultation on play park design

LYME Regis residents are invited to a public consultation to help choose a new design for the town's play park.

Lyme Regis Town Council is holding a consultation event on the future of the Anning Road play park on Thursday, April 9th from 2pm to 8pm at the Jubilee Pavilion on Marine Parade.

The council has committed £100,000 to redevelop the park and a further £20,000 to improve the BMX track.

Play park design and construction experts were invited to put forward original designs for the park, with 17 plans submitted by companies from all over the country. A working group of town councillors whittled them down to the best seven designs, which will go on public display to allow residents to choose their preferred scheme.

Town council operations manager Elliott Herbert said: "We were overwhelmed by the number of designs submitted. Clearly they are specialists in this field and all the companies are more than capable of supplying a fantastic park for our town.

"It's going to be a real focal point for families in the town and we are keen for them to have the opportunity to see the final seven designs chosen by councillors.

"We were really impressed by the standard of the submissions, with some interesting pieces of play equipment, several themed parks, and plenty of inclusive equipment for children of all ages and physical abilities.

"We hope to see as many residents as possible, especially families, at the Jubilee Pavilion to choose their favourite design. We're holding it during the Easter holidays to allow children to hopefully come along with their parents or carers and really get involved in the process.

"This is an opportunity for the town to have its say and help ensure we get the right park for our children and future generations."

Councillors and council officers will be at the consultation event to answer questions and talk through the designs, and the working group will meet again after the event to receive residents' feedback before the full council formally appoints the chosen designer.

The redevelopment of the play park and BMX track is one of two major projects the town council is funding from its 2015/16 budget, the other being the replacement of the seafront railings.

The BMX track is not included in the play park designs and will be subject to a separate design process to bring the facility up to the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents standards.

We've really enjoyed our first 5 years of brewing in Lyme Regis. Thank you to the pubs, hotels, restaurants and shops who have supported us. And a big thanks to you, the beer-drinking public, for drinking so much of our ale. Let's raise a glass to the next five years...

Maritime Lyme gives royal welcome to Duke of Kent

ROYAL VISITOR MEETS LIFEBOAT CREW, GIG CLUB AND BOAT BUILDERS

■ HARBOURSIDE: Lifeboat operations manager and harbourmaster Grahame Forshaw MBE chats with the Duke of Kent and Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, Angus Campbell, while showing them around the RNLI facilities

LYME Regis was able to show off the best of its seafaring culture when the town welcomed a royal visitor last week.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent visited the town's acclaimed Boat Building Academy, was introduced to members of Lyme Regis Gig Club and given a tour of the lifeboat station on the Cobb on Thursday afternoon.

After flying into the town by helicopter and landing at the Woodroffe School, the Duke, accompanied the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, Angus Campbell, was introduced to civic dignitaries, including the chairman of Dorset County Council, Councillor John Wilson; chairman of West Dorset District Council, Councillor Gillian Summers; and the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, accompanied by watch commander of Lyme Regis Fire Brigade, Virgil Turner.

The Duke also met with principal of the Boat Building Academy, Yvonne Green, director Tim Gedge and traditional boat builder Gail McGarva MBE. Former academy student Gail was recognised with the MBE last year for her services to heritage crafts and clinker boat building, and she showed the royal visitor around some of the boats currently being built in the workshop.

Members of Lyme Regis Gig Club then greeted the Duke with a guard of honour of oars and shanty singing as Gail showed him their gig "Tempest", which she built herself.

His Royal Highness, who is president of the RNLI, then moved on to the lifeboat station at the Cobb, where he was greeted by operations manager and harbourmaster, Grahame Forshaw MBE, and other representatives of the charity. Mr Forshaw showed the Duke around the Atlantic 85 class lifeboat "Spirit of Loch Fyne" on the slipway before introducing him to members of the crew, who told him about their latest shout - a false alarm the previous night.

The Duke was taken inside to tour the station's facilities. He met with students from Charmouth Primary School, whose artwork was on display in the station, and head boy and girl from the Woodroffe School before enjoying tea and cake with other volunteers.

Before heading back to London, the royal visitor made a quick stop in the award-winning RNLI shop next to the station, where he chatted with volunteers and was shown the shop's bestselling items.

Speaking on the visit, Mr Forshaw said: "It was lovely to see the Duke and we were very pleased to welcome him to the lifeboat station. He was keen to make everyone feel relaxed and was interested to hear about the crew and their backgrounds."

"He particularly took interest in hearing about how often the crew trains and that fact that they are not professional seamen, but all volunteers, and he was also pleased to meet the volunteer fundraisers."

"Overall the station showed itself to be a well-rounded and supported facility."

The mayor added: "It was a pleasure to welcome His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent to Lyme Regis, together with the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset. He took a great interest in the work of the Boat Building Academy and the gig 'Tempest', and asked many questions of Gail and the students."

"The RNLI crew and volunteers were a credit to their station, a day to be proud of our town and both of the institutions honoured by this visit."

■ BESTSELLER: Irene Roper, acting chairman of the Lyme Regis & Charmouth RNLI Guild, shows the Duke the top-selling item in the gift shop

■ MEET AND GREET: The Duke is introduced to lifeboat operations manager and harbourmaster Grahame Forshaw MBE with deputy launching authority John Dover pictured centre

■ TAKING AN INTEREST: The Duke takes a look at some of the current projects at Lyme Regis Boat Building Academy

■ ALWAYS ON DUTY: Members of the lifeboat crew told the Duke about their latest shout, a false alarm they attended the previous night

■ A SEASIDE WELCOME: The Duke was met with a guard of honour of oars and shanty singing as he met Lyme Regis Gig Club

■ PRAISING VOLUNTEERS: The Duke was impressed with the success of the tiny award-winning RNLI shop on the Cobb

COLEMANS OF DORSET

COLEMANS, based on the St. Andrews Industrial Estate, have recently finished the displays in their new showroom. Several displays have working appliances so you can see if they would be a good fit for your kitchen, bedroom or bathroom.

For example there is an Electric induction hob that boils a pint of water in two minutes and the heat turns off when the pan is removed, great for a family kitchen.

One of the walk-in shower displays is fully working, so you can see how this luxury shower could work in your home.

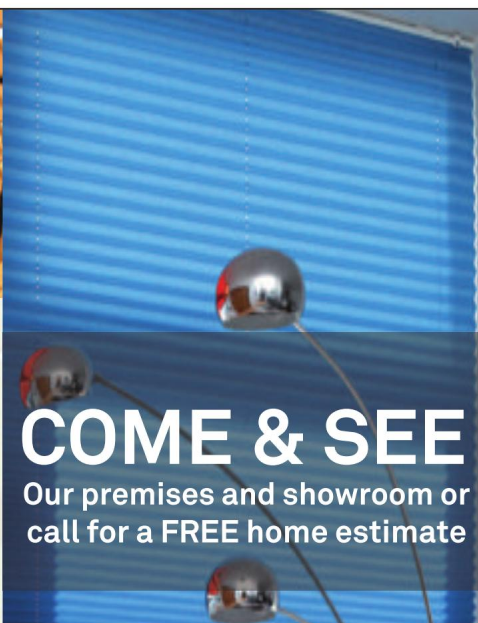

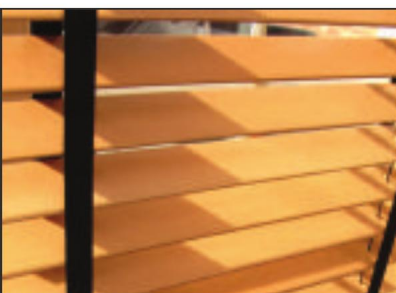

The team are on hand with expert advice and a state of the art 3D planning service. Remember COLEMANS for KBB, KITCHENS-BEDROOMS-BATHROOMS. We can design it, we can supply it, we can install it.

MALABAR TRADING

THERE are exciting new items at Malabar Trading, just in time for Easter, and lovely bright oval bunting which is very appropriate! Just arrived are new blue and white blockprinted textiles which have been made in India especially for the shop. There are cotton filled quilts, tablecloths, sarongs and kimonos and nightdresses in the new designs. Also new quilted travelbags which are very attractive, lightweight and easy to carry.

There are also two new designs in white voile tie top curtains. these come in three sizes and have delicate white designs handprinted onto the voile.

Round baskets woven in Ghana are also in the shop now in many designs and colours, these are great for picnics, the beach and for shopping. There are Turkish towels too which are good for the beach in the warm weather which must arrive one of these days!

As ever there is a wide selection of blockprinted tablecloths, bedspreads and quilts and handwoven kilims and dhurries, kilim cushion covers and cotton blockprinted cushion covers.

There are more shipments to arrive in the next few weeks. It's always worth visiting the shop as many items are in limited quantities. All goods are ethically produced and many are exclusive to Malabar Trading.

Why Lyme will always be special to me

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

Westminster and Hammersmith and Fulham provides a challenge I relish. It will probably be my last hurrah before retirement.

Of course, we are never short of a good story as such in London and, with Geoff Baker on the payroll, we have had some crackers in recent weeks. "Met needs more Muslim mums with guns" is not the sort of headline that is ever likely to appear in the View From Lyme Regis.

As someone who has always been fascinated by local government – some would say, with some justification, obsessed – it is interesting to be so close to the workings of local government in the capital and to see at first hand the challenges of running the London boroughs.

Take the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea as an example. South Ken is one of the most affluent areas in the country with its proliferation of mansions and Russian émigrés; North Ken has some of London's most deprived areas.

The council is as blue as they come, as you can imagine, with some very political big hitters among their ranks, but the ruling Tories are challenged by a lively Labour opposition and don't get it all their own way. All this makes good copy, of course.

One thing that has struck me these past few months whilst launching four new titles in London is to what lengths local authorities go to make city life as interesting and stimulating as possible for their multi-national communities. They really do go that extra mile.

Not that all the residents are happy with the services they receive, as you would expect.

Geoff Baker and I recently attended a swanky event in the Mayor's Parlour in Kensington Town Hall. Very plush. The mayor's limousine was parked outside and just as we were entering the building we witnessed a very dissatisfied customer who ran out of the offices and on his way ripped the official Kensington Crest of the top of the mayoral vehicle with two burley security guards in hot pursuit. No one else seemed to take too much notice as though it was an every day occurrence.

Geoff looked at me and muttered: "Good story!"

Things, of course, are very different in this part of the world. The politics of local government is not so intent and whilst our councils at all levels strive to provide essential services and life-enhancing initiatives, the demand is nowhere near so great. And living in such a beautiful part of the world has many compensations.

Having been born and raised in Lyme, I must admit I did not really appreciate how lucky we are to live in Lyme until I moved to London in my early 30s.

Now longer in the tooth, the change of pace worries me less, although there are times when I'm catching the 6.30am out of Axminster, I ask myself: "Why am I doing this?" And when my wife picks me up late at night I always ask her to drive through Lyme – "to see who's about".

So to answer that question about me abandoning my hometown. Never. Lyme will always be special to me.

A million reasons not to move bowling club

IN my comments in this column last week about the Monmouth Beach and whether Lyme Regis Town Council wanted to move the Bowling Club to the Strawberry Field, I made reference to a report by the town clerk and the estimation that it would cost £1.5million to provide a new club for the bowlers.

This was incorrect (see correction on page 3). The £1.5million John Wright referred to was the amount of capital which the council could expect to receive if they sold chalets on the site of the bowling club.

I am sure the town clerk has enough on his plate at the moment without me muddying the waters but it was an easy mistake to make. However, I am sorry if it caused the town clerk distress.

We were not the only ones to misinterpret the reference to £1.5million. I spoke to two councillors about the figure and they both thought it referred to the cost of resiting the bowling club.

It's a rather academic mistake, in fact, because should the council decide in future to develop the bowling club site – and here we should make it clear they have a lease that runs to 2019 and the council has categorically said this is not their intention – I believe it would cost well over a million pounds to provide alternative facilities up of a similar standard at the Strawberry Field.

I make that judgement having recalled that when I was chairman of the football club and we were trying to move to the Strawberry Field the project was costed at £1.2 million – and that was ten years ago.

Teaching people to be tech-savvy

FOR almost six months, LymeNet has been working with people in Lyme Regis and Charmouth libraries to help them use their bits of "tech".

Through 180 sessions we have helped with phones, tablets, iPads, laptops, e-readers, and cameras. We have helped install programmes, understand instruction booklets, get hands-on and manage files. Often this help has been with equipment bought for parents and grandparents who were too embarrassed to ask how to use it. We know that quite a few people who have never used such equipment before now have more confidence to try.

This work was funded by Dorset Community Foundation to help people connect and get started with IT. This has been a great success where we have helped more than the targets we initially agreed, and people have been so pleased with the assistance that many have then moved on to our other basic courses.

Whilst the funding has now run out we will attempt to get some more in due course. However, we hope that in the meantime we can still assist people here at LymeNet with basic and brief queries and demonstrations (for a small donation). We also provide courses for those who need rather more structured or lengthy assistance, including those for absolute beginners). Many courses are free, but we can also offer one-to-one tuition at an hourly rate if you need something bespoke.

News from

We currently have a group, of mostly older people, who have become so keen to learn more and so familiar with each other and our tutors, that they are continuing to come along every Monday morning and are intending to attend all of our beginners' courses even though they only get the first one free.

Peter Jeffs, CEO of Lyme Regis Development Trust, which incorporates LymeNet said: "Even though technology has become so universal in many people's lives, this library project goes to show that LymeNet's original role is still just as relevant today as it was when we were set up 16 years ago.

"Life without using IT is becoming increasingly difficult, and with the government's 'digital by default' approach many services will only be offered on-line in future. We hope people will continue to approach us for help."

Public First bringing petition to Lyme

THE Public First campaign group will be collecting signatures in Lyme Regis for their petition to put an end to West Dorset District Council's existing Cabinet system on Saturday, April 4th.

The group, which argues that a committee system would be more democratic, will be outside the Three Cups in Broad Street from 9.30am to 12.30pm.

If five per cent of West Dorset residents on the electoral roll sign, this will trigger a referendum on whether the district council should change away from the current six-person Cabinet system to a committee system, where all elected councillors can play a role in policy-making.

The group claims to already have more than 2,000 signatures, including 400 from its last outing in Dorchester a week ago.

Secretary John Grantham said: "We will welcome discussing the petition's proposal and hope for more real support from the people of Lyme Regis as we campaign, on non-party-political basis, for an improvement to the structural system for our democracy."

Purple-theme afternoon tea raises £415 for epilepsy charity

■ ON THEME: Supporters attended the afternoon tea party for SUDEP Action dressed in purple

A LYME Regis family raised £415 for charity SUDEP Action, for sudden unexpected death in epilepsy, when they held a purple-theme event at their home.

Kerina and John Toates and their family took part in the worldwide Purple Day event. This year's theme was a cake bake day to raise funds for vital research by Professor John Duncan of UCL and the National Hospital for Neurology & Neurosurgery, who has developed a wearable apnoea detection device to help prevent epilepsy deaths.

The family baked cakes for friends and supporters who attended their afternoon tea dressed in purple, and would like to thank all those who supported the cause, which is particularly close to their hearts.

Kerina, John and their family have been keen supporters of SUDEP Action since their son Matthew, an epilepsy sufferer, tragically died in his sleep, aged 20.

Kerina said: "We would like to express our gratitude and thanks to all our friends who came to our afternoon tea party and supported us once again in our fundraising for SUDEP Action."

"Special thanks to Patsy Farrell for her 'front of house' skills and other bakers. Not forgetting those who were unable to join us but still also made a donation."

Why didn't council apply for grants for skatepark?

■ MAYBE I've missed something. If so, can someone please explain why the council did not apply for a grant to at least part-fund the provision of the proposed skateboard facility?

To spend £150,000 of local council taxpayers money seems excessively extravagant and a huge proportion of our reserves, for let's be honest, a small minority of our population who would want and use the park.

Horticultural society events

UPLYME and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society have a number of upcoming events.

On Tuesday, April 14th there will be a coach trip to the National Trust estate of Stourhead, leaving Uplyme at 9:30am. Places are still available for £11 to National Trust members or £20 for non-members. Book by calling Rob Harvey on 01297 631664 by April 7th.

On Wednesday, April 22nd there will be a talk on British owls, their natural history and practical conservation by the well-known expert Chris Sperring, who will be bringing live owls along to show. The talks will be held at 7.30pm, entry is free to members of £3 to non-members including refreshments.

The society's annual spring plant sale and coffee morning will be held on Saturday, May 9th from 9.30am to 11.30am also in the village hall. All donations of plants and produce will be gratefully received and entry costs £1.

School's duck race will be bigger and better than ever!

CHARMOUTH Primary School's annual duck race is promised to be bigger and better than ever this year.

In addition to the duckling race, for the first time there will also be a giant duck race at the River Chard on East Beach, Charmouth, starting at 1.30pm.

The giant ducks are on sale to local businesses for £30 each, which then have the opportunity to get creative and brand their ducks by painting and decorating them or even adding parts to them!

Any local businesses interested in advertising via the giant duck race should email charmouthgiant-duckrace@hotmail.com for further information.

The annual duckling race will follow at 2pm with ducks cost £1 and prizes of £60, £30, £20 and £10 up for grabs, available from local shops and pubs or on the day.

As well as the two races there will be a barbecue, games for children, refreshments and snacks starting from 12noon.

I'VE noticed a few homes with displays ready for Easter in their windows! These usually consist of a twiggy branch with small Easter eggs dangling from the twigs and an arrangement beneath.

This is a family tradition that I grew up with and the branch can be as big as easily fits in your window and can be fixed so it doesn't fall over. The container at its base can also hold an arrangement of flowers, pot plants, rabbits (not live ones!) or an Easter garden. An Easter garden has moss in a mound with three crosses on top representing Good Friday, some small stones to form the tomb where Jesus' body was placed; with a flat, round stone in front ready to roll away on Sunday morning to show Jesus is risen.

The eggs can be papier-mâché, ceramic or chocolate. Fluffy chicks can be found in some shops to add to the display. You could send me a photo of displays you create through the Lyme Regis Parish Church website.

If this week is wet, as the weather forecasts suggest, this will be an opportunity to carry on with craft and arty projects. So don't be glum, come along to the Town Mill Malt-house to see Shuna George's exhibition of paintings and Marjorie Lee's textiles with the title "Arise; Shine!" from Friday 3rd to Tuesday 14th. Learn a new technique in designing and making jewellery or bugs from special metallic plastic (from £6 including tuition), 10am to 4pm daily.

View from the churches

If you feel inspired then a date to remember is Wednesday, April 22nd from 2pm to 4pm at the Bethany Chapel - "Discover the artist within you" - a demo art session with various arts and crafts activities using paint, glue, etc! Bring an apron, everything else provided. This is a "let your hair down", "have a go" afternoon with spiritual input as we go along and light refreshments.

There are plenty of services over Holy Week and Easter, please check websites of the town churches. These include 11am on Good Friday at St Michael's Parish Church for a reflective service, and 2pm at St Andrew's, Charmouth, for a service at the cross.

On Easter morning there is the opportunity and challenge to get up early and join together for the sunrise service at 6.30am. Greet our risen Lord and Saviour looking out over the Cobb in Langmoor Gardens, just follow the crowd. Imagine the smell of bacon baps as we return to the Baptist Church Hall following our celebration together!

Wishing everyone an inspiring and creative Easter.

The Reverend Jane Skinner,
Team Vicar, St Michael's
Parish Church

THE ULTIMATE GARDEN FENCE

◆ Maintenance Free
◆ Guaranteed for 25 years

AT LAST! The holy grail of fencing transforming gardens across the UK!

It may do "exactly what it says on the tin" but let's face it, treating a timber fence can never be called fun! In fact, owning a timber fence isn't much fun either with costly, time consuming maintenance and repairs almost every year.

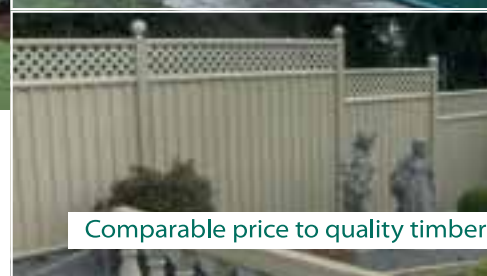

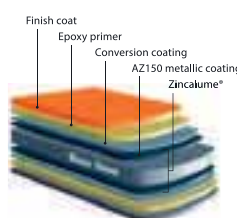

Finally, the alternative to timber fencing.... our fence goes up and stays up, resisting wind gusts of up to 130mph!

Colourfence fencing solutions are made from innovative Colorbond steel, virtually maintenance free with an occasional wash down with water to keep it looking as good as new - so you never need to pick up that paintbrush again!, Guaranteed not to rot, warp, chip or peel for 25 years.

Available in a variety of heights and colours with or without trellis, our skilled installation team will make short work of transforming your garden.

The best news is the pricing is just as attractive, starting costs are in line with comparable traditional systems but offer the ongoing peace of mind you're your investment will continue to save time and money year after year.

For those of us who want a maintenance free garden, Colourfence promises a lifetime of hassle-free enjoyment.

GYPSY HILL

GYPSY Hill descend on Dorchester Arts Centre with their renowned intoxicating mix of Balkan brass, Mediterranean surf rock, ska & swing onto Dorchester Arts Centre. Featuring guitars, horns, tuba, a scratch DJ and a mix of live and electronic beats, they effortlessly mix the traditional with a uniquely modern sound.

Beginning as a producer duo - DJ Kobayashi and Herbert Newbert - Gypsy Hill grew into a live band that combines big beats with a ballsy brass ensemble. Taking their name from the South East London town, the Gypsy Hill extravaganza have taken audiences by storm at an array of UK and European festivals including Glastonbury, WOMAD, Fusion and Winterthur Musikfestwochen to name a few.

Their transition from studio to stage comes with high-energy live shows, often mixed with exhilarating big screen visuals and dancers. Back in the studio they have built up quite the catalogue with remixes for Balkan Beat Box and Al Jawala and a special feature on Ninja Tune's acclaimed 'Ninja Jamm' app alongside the likes of Coldcut, Mr Scruff and Bonobo.

Gypsy Hill's highly anticipated debut album was released in August 2014 and they have been touring since the autumn, with recent shows in Paris and London (including a free gig in Camden). Next stop Dorchester!

Catch Gypsy Hill on Friday, April 10th at Dorchester Arts Centre, 8pm (doors & bar: 7.30pm) - Tickets: £10/£8 members & concessions.

To book tickets, call Dorchester Arts box office on 01305 266926 or visit the website www.dorchesterarts.org.uk.

Songstress at the Arts Centre

SARAH MCQUAID IN DORCHESTER

SARAH McQuaid seduces her audience with cheeky banter and stories from the road, as well as with stunning musicianship; in her hands, the guitar becomes much more than merely an accompanying instrument.

With her voice being compared to malt whiskey, melted chocolate and "honey poured into wine" (Minor 7th), the singer/song-writer/guitarist has been touring around the US and Europe delighting audiences with her sweet treat-like vocals. Next stop for Sarah is Dorchester Arts Centre on Sunday, April 12th.

Her eclectic music is somewhat of a reflection of her background; born in Madrid, raised in Chicago, then living in Ireland and most recently rural Cornwall, McQuaid refuses to be pigeonholed musically within genres.

Her new single was released in October 2014 and her fourth solo album hit the shelves back in February 2015, it's has been a busy time for Sarah McQuaid. Earlier last year, she travelled from her adopted home in Cornwall, to the small town of Cornwall, New York, USA, where she spent three weeks recording the new album.

Sarah's third solo album The Plum Tree and the Rose was released in 2012 and has drawn critical acclaim on both sides of the Atlantic. It is not without comment on our socio-political climate, and Sarah does excellent justice to the global economic downturn on The Sun Goes on Rising.

A perfect Sunday session of exquisite music to soothe the soul.

Catch Sarah McQuaid on Sunday, April 12th at Dorchester Arts Centre 8pm (doors & bar: 7.30pm) - Tickets: £9/ £7 members & concessions

To book tickets, call Dorchester Arts box office on 01305 266926 or visit the website www.dorchesterarts.org.uk.

Raw Celtic folk in Bridport

COME ALIVE WITH THE FEEL-GOOD MUSIC OF FEROCIOUS DOG

CREATING their own take on traditional Celtic folk, Ferocious Dog takes the traditional instruments: fiddles, whistles, mandolins and mixes them up with a bit of raw, buzzsaw rock n' roll attitude. With their unique, aggressive yet feel-good music, they tear up venues across the country, often bringing their faithful Hell Hounds along for the ride.

For many years Ferocious Dog have appeared at small venues and pubs, until in 2009 when the band were given the opportunity to play at Bearded Theory Festival. They went down a storm, were asked to return the following years and ultimately played the main stage in 2012 where their popularity grew tenfold. After this opportunity, gig and festival offers from all over the county starting coming in thick and fast, and on the back of an eponymous album, Ferocious Dog are playing and headlining festivals across the country.

They made history this year by become the only unsigned act to ever sell out the Rescue Rooms in Nottingham, not only once but twice. With a successful 2014 autumn tour including sold-out shows, and with their new guitarist, 2015 is already looking bright, catch this band while you can - you will not be disappointed.

Ferocious Dog play at Bridport's Electric Palace on Thursday, April 16th. Doors open 7pm for 8pm. Tickets are £10 (plus booking fee) in advance, or £12 on the door. Tickets through Electric Palace Box Office (open Tues-Sat, 10am-4pm) 01308 428354, Bridport TIC (open Mon-Sat 10am-3pm) on 01308 424901 or online at www.seetickets.com

WHODUNNIT?

All aboard the Paddle Steamer Lotus for a Murder on the Nile

LYME Regis Dramatic Society invites you to join them on an exciting cruise on the River Nile.

"Murder on the Nile" by Agatha Christie is the latest production by the Society and promises to bring you all the drama and intrigue that you would expect from the pen of this prolific mystery story writer.

On this occasion we meet the passengers and crew as they board the Lotus with all the hustle and bustle to be expected at the start of their cruise. It quickly becomes apparent that few of the passengers are quite what they seem and as the cruise gets under way and the story unfolds, their true characters and motives quickly appear.

Most people will have seen the film of this story which includes the famous Hercule Poirot. Now when Agatha Christie actually wrote this story – one of her later ones – she had apparently tired of Poirot and there is another sleuth on board who get to grips with the unfolding drama that occurs.

All the usual LRDS suspects are in the cast plus two new faces who we are delighted to welcome to the Society and we are sure you will enjoy their performances. These are Margaret Morgan playing Kay Mostyn and Richard Mabb – Cannon Pennefather. Other members of cast are Dave Ballinger (Smith), Hazel Cawte (Jacqueline de Severac), Linda Crawford (Christina Grant), Fred Humphrey (Dr Bessner), Anne King (Miss Ffoliot-Ffoulkes), Steve Knight (Simon Mostyn), Pam Ladd (Louise), Jim Pettifer (Mr McNaught), and Richard Stirk (Steward). The play is Directed by Mike Whatmore assisted by Cherine Hill and we have our usual backstage help from Mike Cawte (SM), Hazel Cawte (Wardrobe) Tony Hill (Lighting & Effects) and Jean Cook (Props). Scenery and stage dressing are acquired and built by members of the Society.

The production opens at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis, on Wednesday, April 15th and runs to Saturday 18th. Curtain up at 7.30pm. Tickets, at £10 for front five rows and £9 for the others, can be obtained from T.I.O., 01297 442138.

Easter Family Fun at the Marine Theatre

THE Marine Theatre is in full Easter swing for the school holidays with charming shows for children ages 3+ and their families.

Following last Sunday's delightful performance from Filskit Theatre with The Feather Catcher, the Marine Theatre is welcoming acclaimed theatre companies such as Untied Artists and Birdsnest with their creative children's tales.

Up and coming Birdsnest Theatre Company are quickly being recognised for their excellent and imaginative theatre for young children, through the use of live music, storytelling and rich visual language. Join them on Thursday, April 2nd with My Friend Mole, a tale of a very special friendship and the imagination (also at Dorchester Arts).

On Wednesday, April 8th, Oxford Playhouse and Untied Artists present the world premiere production of brand new family show, The Boy Who Bit Picasso.

The Boy Who Bit Picasso is inspired by Antony Penrose's well-loved book. This engaging children's production follows a boy called Tony who becomes friends with Pablo Picasso, telling the true story of how Tony spent his childhood with one of the greatest artists who ever lived.

In this interactive new show, audiences are invited to take part in a variety of hands-on art and craft activities, aimed at children aged 4 to 8 and their families. There will also be storytelling and music composed by Untied Artists, as children are introduced to one of the 20th century's most influential artists (also at Bridport Arts Centre).

My Friend Mole: Thursday, April 2nd, 3pm at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis. All tickets: £5. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com. Also on at Dorchester Arts: www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

The Boy Who Bit Picasso: Wednesday, April 8th, 11am at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis. All tickets: £5. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com. Also on at Bridport Arts Centre: www.bridport-arts.com

Viva Santana return! Family films for just £1 this Easter

RETURNING to the Marine, the phenomenal seven-piece Latin rock explosion Viva Santana continues to amaze fans wherever they present their celebration of the music of the legendary Carlos Santana. Over the past eleven years they have played to full houses as diverse as the prestigious London Guitar Show Wembley to theatres and rock festivals in the UK, Europe and even Cuba; soloist Marcos Rodriguez' performance was described as "a musical bridge between Cuba and Spain". After seeing Rodriguez, an astonished fan said "When they made Carlos Santana someone forgot to break the mould!"

It's all there, from the powerful four piece rhythm section (congas, timbales, drums and bass) giving the band it's heartbeat of traditional and modern Latin rhythms, to the infectious Cuban piano and haunting

Hammond organ wizardry of a truly gifted keyboard maestro.

Viva Santana perform at the Marine Theatre on Saturday, April 11th at 8pm (doors open 7.15pm).

Tickets are priced at £13.50 (full) and £11.50 (concessions) available from the website at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

A TheatreFriends discount is available.

FAMILIES are quids in at Bridport Electric Palace this Easter.

The entertainment venue in South Street is screening a programme of classic family films, with tickets at just £1 to see each one. Drinks, popcorn and ice creams will also be £1.

The movies will be shown on the market days of Easter Saturday, April 4th, Wednesday, April 8th and Saturday, April 11th.

The films being shown on Easter Saturday are Winnie the Pooh at 10.30am, Willie Wonka and the Chocolate Factory at 12.30pm, when there will be scrumptious treats available, and Tales of Beatrix Potter at 2.30pm, in which performers from The Royal Ballet take the parts of the characters from the classic books.

On the following Wednesday, April 8th there will be a selection of modern classics from the Disney Studio which include The Lego Movie at 10.30am, Planes Fire and Rescue at 12.30pm and Toy Story at 2.30pm.

On the last Saturday of the Easter holidays, April 11th, Monsters Inc. will kick off the day at 10.30am before the two family classics, Aladdin at 12.30pm and Lady and the Tramp at 2.30pm.

There's no need to book in advance. People just arrive 30 minutes before the start of each film to buy their tickets.

For the full programme visit the website at www.electricpalace.org.uk or call the box office on 01308 428354.

Bridport Vintage Market returns this Easter Sunday

FOLLOWING last years success, this Easter Sunday sees the return of the Bridport Vintage Market on the historic and atmospheric St. Michaels Trading Estate.

Already well established as a hub for antiques, furniture, vintage clothing and collectables, St. Michaels provides the perfect backdrop for the market whose extra stallholders each month will add to the mix with their own variety of vintage and antique wares.

Alongside this will be the addition of street musicians and food stalls with the famous

Red Brick Café open and serving their own range of tasty food and drinks. With St. Michaels Art Studios also being open the day promises to have plenty to see, do and buy!

The markets will run the season again from April to September on the last Sunday of the month from 10am to 4pm.

Bookings for stallholders or for any additional information about future markets can be made by emailing vintagemarketbridport@gmail.com or call Lorrie 07970 700983 or Kate 07896531106.

What's on in April at Bridport Arts Centre

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is challenging you to try something different this April. With a wide range of events from musical comedy to dance the programme presents true variety.

To kickstart the month the Arts Centre will present dynamic duo Nick Wyke & Becki Driscoll who create bold and unusual arrangements of folk songs with the fiddle at the heart of their music. (Saturday, April 4th, 8pm)

During the Easter holidays the Arts Centre presents The Boy who bit Picasso (Tuesday, April 7th, 11am and 2pm), a fun and interactive show for children aged 4 to 8 and of course their families. There'll be storytelling, music and lots of chances to make your own art.

Taking on the big issues ahead of the May 2015 general election, award-winning musical comedians Jonny and the Baptists bring their blend of songs, satire and silliness to the Bridport Arts Centre stage (Tuesday, April 7th, 8pm).

On Friday 10 April, 8pm the popular Comedy Café returns with the opportunity to discover some of the most promising comedians on the comedy circuit before they hit the big time.

The first installment of Exhibition on Screen will be Vincent Van Gogh's 'A New Way of Seeing', April 14th at 7.30pm. With exclusive access to the Van Gogh Museum in Amsterdam it explores the dramatic story and iconic work of the world's most beloved artist.

On Thursday, April 16th, 7.30pm Theatre lovers can enjoy outrageously versatile performer David Mynne's one-man performance of Bram Stoker's classic gothic novel Dracula.

Star of BBC1's 'Live at the Apollo', a regular on Channel 4's Stand-Up For The Week with three series of his own acclaimed show on BBC Radio 4, comedian Andrew Laurence brings his tour to the Arts Centre stage. (Friday, April 17th, 8pm renowned)

On April 23rd, 7.30 there will be a Flash Fiction Story Slam celebrating the art of writing very short stories.

Philip Clouts Jazz Café returns on Friday, April 24th at 8pm features Flekd, a lively five-piece band whose music delves into lively traditional Celtic folk melodies visiting rhythms from Indian and African traditions along the way.

Ballet Central return with a fantastic evening of ballet, neoclassical, contemporary and narrative dance on Friday, April 24th, 7.30pm. This family-friendly show is ideal for dance enthusiasts as well as those new to ballet.

So why not try something new this April. Call the box office on 01308 424204 or visit www.bridport-arts.com.

A FIRST FLOOR THREE BEDROOM FLAT IN BRADPOLE, NEAR BRIDPORT - £650PCM

VICARY & Co are pleased to offer a first floor, three bedroom flat, located to the northern side of Bridport, on the edge of Bradpole village. The property, benefitting from gas central heating, has its front door at ground level leading into the Lobby, which has access to a store room. A secondary half glazed door leads into the Hall with stairs rising to the first floor living area, where doors lead to an inner passage (giving access to bedrooms two and three), and the living room, kitchen, bathroom and bedroom one.

The living room, with window to the front aspect and a laminate board effect floor, has a feature stone-built fireplace and tiled hearth, perfect for an electric fire as a focal point and a matching stone-built corner TV unit. The Kitchen has a window to the rear aspect and a rear back door leading out onto a small balcony. Fitted with tile effect vinyl flooring, a built-in electric fan-assisted oven / grill and cooker hood is incorporated into the fitted wall and base units with varnished pine door fronts, whilst a gas four-burner hob and 1½ bowl stainless steel sink is inset into the work surface. Space is provided for a fridge / freezer and space and plumbing for a washing machine. Bedroom One, a double size room, has a window to the rear and side aspects, fitted carpet flooring and a built-in wardrobe with hanging rail. Bedrooms Two and Three are both single size rooms with windows to the front aspect. Bedroom Two has built-in wardrobe area with hanging rail. The family bathroom has a window to the rear aspect, fully tiled walls and fitted mosaic effect vinyl flooring. The white bathroom suite comprising a pedestal wash hand basin, WC and Bath has an electric shower facility. Outside is an enclosed garden to the rear. EPC D. Council Tax Band A. The property is offered unfurnished, and is available NOW at £650 per calendar month. To book a viewing or for more information please call Vicary & Co on 01308 459550 or visit our web site www.vicaryandco.com / email info@vicary&co.com.

Efficiency Meets Performance

MERCEDES-BENZ has thoroughly revised its best-seller in the SUV segment. The highlights of the new GLE include a more appealing front and rear and extensive measures which make new benchmarks with regard to emissions and the drive system possible. Across the available engine range, fuel consumption and CO2 emissions are reduced by 17 per cent on average compared with the predecessor model series. For the first time in its SUV history, Mercedes-Benz offers a plug-in hybrid model, the GLE 500 e 4MATIC, which combines maximum efficiency with outstanding performance. This multi-talent will even better the already low fuel consumption figures of the efficiency champion the GLE 250 d with the four-cylinder diesel engine, while delivering the performance of a V8 model. The advantages of the new GLE furthermore include best on-road and off-road handling, outstanding spaciousness and high levels of active and passive safety. The high-performance SUV model, the Mercedes-AMG GLE 63 S 4MATIC, celebrates world première at the same time.

"State-of-the-art and efficient drive technology, combined with superior ride quality and the versatility and robustness typical for SUVs - the new GLE has all the ingredients to continue the success story of our best-seller," is how Ola Källenius, Member of the Board of Management of Daimler AG, Mercedes-Benz Cars, characterises the newest member of the Mercedes-Benz SUV family. Outstanding safety and a high level of driving dynamics both on the road and in terrain are among the other strengths of the premium SUV. Furthermore, the GLE impresses with ground-breaking assistance systems, the nine-speed 9G-TRONIC automatic transmission and the innovative DYNAMIC SELECT dynamic handling control system, which offers extensive drive and off-road programmes already in basic specification.

The unmistakable design with the hallmark C-pillar and the variable interior with the wellness factor of a luxurious saloon model enrich the Mercedes-Benz GLE experience as well. "Often copied, rarely equalled - the M-Class established the segment of premium SUVs in 1997 and since then has been one of the most successful models in the world. With the launch of the GLE, the edition will surpass the 1.6 million mark," Källenius went on to say. And Tobias Moers, Chairman of the Board of Management of Mercedes-AMG GmbH, added: "With the new GLE 63 and seven additional performance SUV models from the GLA 45 AMG to the G 65 AMG, Mercedes-AMG is in an extremely strong and very confident position. All three generations of the predecessors were highly popular. We offer the right performance automobile for every individual taste in the further growing SUV segment."

A Splash Of Style With Innovative World-First Textured Paint

PEUGEOT's reputation for striking exterior design is second to none. With the eagerly anticipated arrival of the new PEUGEOT 208, on sale from June, the brand is launching a world-first technology for a production vehicle – a unique 'textured paint' finish.

Exclusive to the popular supermini and further evidence of the sophisticated style now running through its entire PEUGEOT model range, distinctive textured paint adds a contemporary twist to the idea of customer choice and individual personalisation.

The textured paint is currently available in two colours, Ice Grey and Ice Silver. For even greater individuality, cars can be specified with an optional Lime Yellow or Menthol White personalisation pack. These are available for the exterior, interior or both.

On offer from launch in June, textured paint offers several benefits. First and foremost, it emphasises the striking, modern lines of the PEUGEOT 208, reinforcing its dynamism and elegant design.

Secondly, the texture – which is subtly granular to the touch – is more hard-wearing and easier to care for than conventional matt paint. It offers exceptional resistance to micro-scratching and doesn't suffer through frequent car washing.

Thirdly, because it is applied by production robots at the advanced Poissy manufacturing plant in France, outstanding quality is guaranteed for the lifetime of the car.

PEUGEOT textured paint is a world-first on a volume production car and is backed by an international patent which is the result of almost four years of technical development. While the initial coats of anti-corrosion, primer and colour base remain the same as for conventional metallic paint, the innovation is in the composition and application of the lacquer. It features fine particles of silica and micro-balloons of polyamide; the former give the paint its matt appearance, toughness and granular properties, the latter creates its special texture.

Throughout the history of motoring, unique exterior finishes such as these have only been available on limited edition models, or as a very expensive premium hand-applied option. For the new PEUGEOT 208, it will cost exactly the same as pearlescent paint – at just £645.

Spare Time To Check All Your Tyres This Easter, Advises Tyresafe

MOTORISTS are reducing their chances of arriving safely and on time this Easter if they don't check all their vehicle's tyres before heading out on to the UK's roads at one of the busiest times of year, warns TyreSafe.

The not-for-profit organisation, dedicated to raising awareness about the importance of correct tyre maintenance and the dangers of defective and worn tyres, is also reminding vehicle owners that those checks should include their spare wheel. That essential inspection should ensure all tyres are at the recommended pressure for the load the vehicle will carry – and that will typically be different for a car when carrying a full load than it would when carrying just two occupants. Looking for bulges or damage and making sure the tread depth is at least above the legal limit of 1.6mm are also crucial.

When it comes to the spare wheel specifically – first of all check to see if your car has one. A recent survey of new cars by Honest John* revealed only 8% of new cars are sold with a full-size spare wheel, with 'space-savers', repair kits and run-flat tyres being the most common alternatives. However, many owners are unaware their car is equipped with one of these options, and will be unsure of what to do should they suffer a puncture or blowout.

The absence of a spare wheel has led to a dramatic rise in callouts to the breakdown recovery services, who are likely to be extremely busy over the Easter holiday. The RAC has reported the number of callouts annually to assist drivers with a puncture but no spare wheel rose from 29,000 in 2010 to 118,000 in 2014 and that number is forecast to rise again this year to 144,000. Meanwhile, tyre-related incidents over the Easter holiday period last year resulted in 7,500 callouts for the AA (17 to 22 April), and were the second most common reason Green Flag provided roadside assistance (almost a shocking five times more than the next most common fault, clutch problems).

With numbers of tyre-related callouts on the increase, in addition to the usual demands on breakdown recovery services, drivers who fail to check their tyres before setting off for the Easter holiday risk finding themselves stranded by the roadside or involved in easily preventable tyre-related incidents.

"As families across the country hit the roads over the Easter period, it's perhaps no surprise that the number of breakdowns soar," comments Stuart Jackson, chairman of TyreSafe. "However, many of these incidents are avoidable if people take the time to check their tyres and ensure everything is in working order. These checks are quick and simple to conduct, but essential as they could be the difference between a pleasurable Easter break and one spent by the roadside or worse."

Spare wheel

Do you have a spare wheel? If not, do you know how you will deal with a puncture or blowout? Unless you plan on using the breakdown services, take the time to read your manual to learn how to properly use tyre sealants, compressor/inflation kits, or run flat tyres. If in any doubt, contact a reputable tyre retailer for clarification.

If you do have a full-sized spare or a space saver tyre, you should check it's properly inflated; its tread depth is above the legal limit; and it's in good working condition (remember speed restrictions will apply to space savers). Don't forget to be sure you have a functioning jack and tyre brace.

"I can honestly say that Phil the owner of this garage was fantastic from start to finish, he is very reliable. I called him about a car i saw on his website that he didnt have in his garage so he had to make a journey to get it for me to look at 2 days later and sure enough he did. It was all checked out before we arrived that morning to look at it. I am very very happy with my car which i bought from him that same day. He gave me a fantastic warranty and i would most definitely recommend him to all my friends."

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

Netherbury closing in on promotion spot

Relegation looms large for Pymore despite making champions Barrington sweat

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE D3 EXMOUTH AMATEURS RESERVES 1 LYME REGIS 1

LYME Regis paid the penalty for failing to capitalise on three good chances in the opening 15 minutes as they were held by an Exmouth Amateurs side that boasted half a dozen of their Division One first team regulars.

With the 'Ammies' first team without a fixture Lyme manager Tim Edwards feared the opponents would be stronger than in the reverse fixture when The Seaside's cruised to a 7-0 win.

And so it proved, although Edwards and his side will feel that they dominated, particularly territorially, and should have returned home with all three points.

The first chance came in the seventh minute when skipper Matt Laing volleyed well over the bar when Mark Bailey's inswinging corner was begging to be headed home.

Two minutes later the home keeper made a superb low save to keep out a clear-cut chance for 22-goal top-scorer Joe Bond who has had better days in front of goal.

The trio of early misses was completed when an out-of-sorts Lee Cleal slashed a volley well-wide at the far post.

And Lyme were to pay when the hosts, with their only attack of the first-half, broke up the slight slope at Warren View in the 15th minute and Danny Dawson smashed a close range volley that keeper Chris Higgs could only parry inside his post.

The Seaside's responded. Bailey had a shot saved after a jinking run before Ben Whittington fired two 30 yarders just over.

The equaliser came on the stroke of half-time when the ball fell to Keiren White after a scramble just inside the box and the centre-back drilled the ball home. Chances were then few and far be-between until the closing stages. Exmouth went close just after the hour with a 20-yard shot that but bounced down off the crossbar.

Edwards clearly felt his side could win the game and introduced strikers Dec Ellis and Harvey Brimicombe off the bench for a late burst. And it almost paid off as Ellis had a shot hooked off the line in the 86th minute.

But the main point of discussion post-match came after the Seaside's felt they were denied a penalty, not once but twice, with shots handled on the line in an injury time melee.

Lyme team: C.Higgs, C.Larcombe, A.Bellworthy, K.White, G.Knight, M.Laing (capt), M.Bailey, B.Whittington (H.Brimicombe 80), J.Bond, J.Simier (D.Ellis 75), L.Cleal (J.Gostling 59).

CHARMOUTH 1 DRIMPTON 11
CHARMOUTH'S search for a win in 2015 was extended to six matches after they were mauled by Drimpton on their own Barrs Lane turf.

"We were rubbish in the first-half, the second was better, but we lacked any enthusiasm," said outgoing Charmouth manager Paul Grinter.

Brin Seward scored his first goal for the Robins who trailed 4-1 at the break and have now conceded 31 goals in their last four outings.

CREWKERNE RANGERS 3 UPLYME 0
DISAPPOINTED Uplyme manager Steve Gillan read the riot act at half-time in a bid to shake up his misfiring troops as they were beaten in a cup-tie at Wadham School for the second time in a week.

"It was the first time since I have been in charge that I have had to have some strong words at half-time," said Gillan who continued: "We had plenty of possession once again, but our second ball was very poor - some of our better players were very out of sorts."

The Swallows enjoyed a better second half and forced the home keeper into three or four fine saves as well as striking the woodwork three times.

The afternoon was rounded off when Dan Prendeville blasted a late penalty high wide and not so handsome.

"We have no striker, and haven't had all season", said Gillan.

WAYTOWN HOUNDS 5

CREWKERNE TOWN RESERVES 1
WAYTOWN responded well to last week's cup defeat with a great team effort against Crewkerne Reserves.

They took the lead when a shot from Jon Legg rebounded into the path of James Loveridge who slotted the ball into the corner. Crewkerne got themselves level through Aaron Hodges and it stayed like that until half time.

Straight after the break Loveridge was provider for MoM Legg who scored from close range and Legg then got his second minutes later, tucking away the rebound, after Dan Dunford had hit the post.

Practically all of the Hounds were involved in the fourth goal with the finishing touch applied by Legg for his hat-trick and the striker went on to get his fourth, and 22nd of the season, after turning his marker and firing home.

CREWKERNE TOWN 5 BEAMINSTER 3
A HARD-FOUGHT win at their temporary home at Misterton sees Crewkerne Town move to within a point of retaining their Premier Division title.

The hosts took the lead when Jamie Spurdle made no mistake with a one-on-one opportunity after being put through by Adam Manley.

The Tigers then lost Jonny Manley and Dave John through injury before Beaminster had Josh Hunter sent off by rookie PSDL referee Stuart Paull in the 20th minute. Liam Riste made it 3-0 before the visitors pulled one back before half-time with Crewkerne losing a third player - Adam Manley - to injury.

Undeterred Riste bagged his 25th of the season before what Crewkerne joint-manager Ben Cox described as "A crazy 20 minutes - we completely lost the plot!" and resulted in the 10-man Rainbows scoring twice.

But and Tigers' nerves were eased five minutes from time when Spurdle netted following a mazy run to make it 5-3.

Josh Baker (2) and outgoing player-manager Dean Newman scored the Beaminster consolations.

LYME REGIS RESERVES 2

SOUTH PETHERTON 3
RUNNERS-UP favourites South Petherton certainly knew they had been in a game after they escaped from the Davey Fort clutching all three points having just about edged past a spirited Lyme second-string.

The Seaside's took the lead inside the first minute when Pete Peacock capitalised on a horrendous mess up in the Pethy back line.

But they levelled on the half-hour when a quickly taken free-kick allowed Rich Hebdtich to fire a goal-bound cross-shot that was touched in at the far post by Tom Case.

Twenty minutes of pressure from the visitors after the break forced two fine saves from Lyme's teenage keeper Toby Fowler but they were rewarded in the 70th minute when ex-Chard Town man Hebdtich slid to ball home for his 22nd goal of the campaign.

Five minutes later Lyme defender Mark Batey was penalised for a foul 20 yards from goal and Danny Rendell stepped up to score from the resulting free-kick.

The Seaside's struck back when referee Nick Eckland awarded what Lyme manager for the day Rob Thom said was a 'dubious' penalty. Up stepped Jake Bearpark to score his first goal for the club but the visitors held on to see out the win.

"They were rattled at the end, we pushed them close," said Thom who picked out midfielder Luke Clifton as his star man and was also impressed by the fleet-footed Tim Bough.

Match sponsors Advantage Digital Print selected Peacock as the official Man-of-the-Match.

WEST & MIDDLE CHINNOCK 7

ILMINSTER TOWN COLTS 0
WEST & MIDDLE Chincock completed their season in fine style with a comprehensive victory over Ilminster Colts.

Johnny Jackson (2), Liam Samways, Liam Bennett, Danny White, Dan Harvey and Connor Fletcher netted the goals.

DIVISION ONE

FARWAY UTD 1 NETHERBURY 4
NETHERBURY made hard work of a game that should of been relatively straight forward after an early goal at bottom of the league Farway.

The Ambers got off to a great start on a very heavy pitch when MoM Tom Franklin finished well after four minutes.

It was anticipated that the flood gates would open but it never really materialised due to some very poor finishing and some good unconventional saves from the home keeper.

It wasn't until the final 10 minutes of the half when Netherbury extended their lead when a Ryan Gall effort took a deflection and looped over the keeper.

The best goal of the game was to follow a few minutes later when defender Zac Hawker cracked home a scorching 30 yarder.

Changes were made at half time by manager Andy Loudon to keep the squad fresh, and this may have contributed to Peter Lee pulling one back with a firm header from a set-piece.

The visitors were to create several good one on one chances but couldn't extend their lead due to poor finishing.

It wasn't until the final five minutes that John Kingston scored the fourth after a good through pass from Chris Symes.

Loudon said afterwards: "It was important to get the three points today to continue our push for promotion, on another day we could of hit double figures."

"Some of our finishing was woeful - especially the one-on-ones. But we can save those hopefully for games to come."

"I would like to praise the players attitude today as we wanted to give some of the players who have not had a lot of game-time of late a full 90 minutes."

"The regulars made my decisions easier by offering to be replaced at half time which is greatly appreciated"

LUSO-CHARD 3 LYME BANTAMS 3

A DEPLETED Lyme Bantams, who travelled with a bare 11 and had to field joint-manager Mark Hodder in goal, did well to come back from 3-1 down to bank a point against relegation-haunted Luso-Chard on the Seavington slope.

The hosts led 2-0 through a brace from Jose Marques Pinto just after the half-hour but Lyme pulled one back right on the half-time whistle when Fred Thomson crossed for Cameron Fowler to tap in from a yard out.

Top scorer Taigo Casimiro bagged his ninth of the season to restore the hosts' two-goal cushion.

But the Seaside's battled away and were rewarded when Shaun Stewart headed home Jimmy Maidment's cross to make it 3-2 and then Fowler found Thomson who made no mistake from six yards.

PYMORE 1 BARRINGTON 4

FOR 70 minutes Pymore appeared to be well on the way to bringing an end to Barrington's 24-game winning run on Saturday.

The hosts led through Cameron Murrell's 15th minute opener and that's how it stayed with an hour on the clock and the visitors looking distinctly out of sorts.

But then came the game's flashpoint with Murrell red-carded by referee Chris Emmerson for what he saw as a head-butt on Barrington's experienced centre-back Sam Spurway - a decision which Pymore manager Stuart Heddtich felt was "Questionable - it looked as though Cameron had been stamped on, but there was no way he butted their player", said Heddtich.

The visitors were then awarded a penalty for a foul which the hosts felt took place outside of the area. As it was Arthur Gay pulled off a fine stop to keep out 40-goal striker Andy Whitefield's spot-kick.

But with home legs tiring Guy Dare struck twice to edge the visitors in front before sub Rob Luxton added a third and Dare rounded off his hat-trick with his 19th goal in just nine matches.

Heddtich was impressed by the efforts of his back four and gloveman Gay.

DIVISION FOUR
UPLYME RESERVES 2

CHARD UTD ALLSTARS 4

"A BIT of low point in our season," was Uplyme manager Stuart Wooster's assessment after seeing his side beaten at home by a team destined for the league's wooden spoon.

The hosts opened the scoring when 16-year-old left back Sam Wooster linked well with Richie Robinson before having a shot parried and Hakim Bib tapped home the rebound.

But an error-strewn opening 45 saw Chard score three times to lead at the interval.

Man-of-the Match Wooster made it 3-2 with a 25-yard free-kick after the restart but despite pressing for an equaliser the Swallows couldn't find a way through and were hit but a breakaway goal in the last minute.

◆ View Sport understands that PSDL officers are discussing a possible change to the league format with a welcome switch to four divisions which would ensure more guaranteed league matches.

Ten-goal Beaminster clinch runners-up spot

Beaminster 10 Gillingham 2nd 0
BEAMINSTER ended the season as they started with a ten-goal thrashing, but this time it was Beaminster giving out the hiding!

The West Dorset side beat relegated Gillingham 2nds in their final game.

The visitors were no match for Beaminster who, after finding themselves rock bottom after a third of the season with just four points from seven games, have won 12 of their last 14, to claim runners-up spot in Channel Division One.

Lydia Brooking hit the post within the first 30 seconds before Bella Foot put them ahead on three minutes when she neatly fired home after keeper Laury Burch had blocked Andrea Prentice's shot.

That became two five minutes later when Prentice set Megan Tuck free and the winger held her nerve to score with aplomb.

Prentice put the result beyond doubt with a third on ten minutes when she pounced to fire home after Brookings's cross looped up off a defender.

A combination of poor finishing, desperate defending and brilliant goal-keeping from Burch prevented Beaminster hitting double figures before the break such was their dominance.

The second half started in the same vein, although the visitors might have pulled a goal back within three minutes when a brilliant mazy dribble and run from deep set up a one-on-one with keeper Lisa Condliffe who stood tall and the shot was fired wide of the post.

Beaminster replied immediately with two goals in two minutes. First Tuck picked up Prentice's shot from a short corner before thumping her shot past a helpless Burch to make it four.

Moments later Julia May won the ball on the halfway line before feeding Brookings who fired home from an acute angle.

Phoebe Stewart then set up Tuck to complete her hat-trick.

Gillingham by now were wilting fast in the face of the barrage. Brookings played in Holly Clarke for the seventh and Prentice's persistence made it eight, before she completed her hat-trick following a short corner.

Tuck had the last word with her fourth right on the final whistle.

So Beaminster completed what must be their most successful season for many a year, which following the dreadful start, makes it all the more satisfying.

If they can keep this squad together next year they can go from strength to strength.

Juniors on form

IN the Three Ball Better Ball three juniors - David Lyon, Stuart Wight & George Seed topped the pile with a brilliant 86 points.

Second, with a masterful silver performance, were Rob Clapp, George Skellern & John Owen with 83 and in third were another young team of George Yorke, Bill Bennett & Jason Contreras on 79.

A mixed team from Lyme defeated Came Down by four and half to three and a half.

In the Midweek Stableford the three aforementioned juniors kept their names in lights as Seed won with 38 points, 2nd was Wight 37 from 3rd Lyon on 35.

Lyme ladies held their charity coffee morning which was well supported with over £700 raised for the captain's charity.

Lady captain Rosie Jackman said she was delighted with the turnout from visitors and club members and the help and support given by Lyme ladies.

The ladies played their Spring 4BBB and Jane Dixon & Jennifer Pollard played well to win with 37 points to just beat Di Smith & Jane Broom (36) into 2nd place.

Rugby

Blues unable to stop champions roll

East Dorset 43 Bridport 14
BRIDPORT failed to stop East Dorset maintaining their 100 per cent record this season, going down 43-14 on a blustery afternoon at Iford Lane.

With the strong wind at their backs East Dorset were 26 points to the good before a travel weary Bridport summoned the necessary intensity to make a game of it.

Rallying from the onslaught, the forwards enjoyed a purple patch just before the break with Dave Cutting scoring after a series of pick and go rucks. Rory Greening converted for a half-time score of 31-7.

Bridport fared better in the second half playing a more direct game through the pack; Mike Pibworth and Daragh McCloughlin leading the charge.

Using the wind to gain territorial advantage, the visitors played more of the game in the opposition's half.

From one such incursion Pibworth stole the ball at a line-out and crashed over to score from close range with Greening adding the two points.

Although East Dorset amassed a further 12 points, Bridport were now competing well.

The game however was decided long before as East Dorset's physicality proved too much for the Blues, as indeed it has for all the other teams in this league.

Bridport's last game of the season will be a home fixture against NEW MILTON on Saturday April 11th.

Under 10s finish third in Festival
WITH some of the worst conditions of the season the Bridport U10 squad took to the field in the pouring rain to play their first group match.

Their first opponents in the round-robin competition were North Dorset who were by far the strongest of the six teams entered, and the young Blues were soon on the back foot as they struggled to contain the attacking runners resulting in defeat by four tries to nil.

If the first game was anything to go by this was going to be a challenging day with Dorchester as the next opposition. But Bridport finally got into their stride and, as confidence grew they began putting in tackles and started to attack themselves, resulting in them scoring their first try and securing the win.

With another two wins to follow the team displayed an entertaining style of rugby and they grew as a squad throughout the day.

A loss in the final game against Sherborne saw them finish a well-deserved third overall.

Man of the match in the group stages was Harry Courtice who crossed the line six times with strong and direct running and the occasional side step; showing hints of what's to come.

Under 9s show potential

ALTHOUGH the U9s did not make the latter stages of the Dorchester Festival they showed what progress they had made during the season with some strong performances.

First up they played a very well-drilled North Dorset, losing by five tries to nil which was no disgrace as their victors went on to beat Bath in the final.

In their next game against the hosts, Dorchester, Bridport rallied strongly from two tries down to score three of their own, through Charles Edwards (2) and Barney Johnson.

But this wasn't enough to land them a semi-final against Bath, but they had a good game against Kingswood winning 7-6 with tries from Johnson (3) Edwards (2) Patrick May and Abi Alner.

They lost their final round-robin game against Sherborne 8-7 with Johnson (4) Edwards (2) and Alner scoring.

Gayle approaching!

By HOWARD LARCOMBE

BATTEN down the hatches and board up the windows within 120 yards of County ground - for there's a Gayle force storm approaching from the West!

The news that Somerset have secured the services of West Indies legend Chris Gayle for a three-week period has alerted cricket fans across the west Country.

The 35-year-old hard-hitting opening batsman has put pen to paper to appear in the following NatWest T20 Blast matches; May 22nd Somerset v Sussex (at Taunton) May 29th Essex v Somerset

May 31st Somerset v Kent (at Taunton) June 5th Somerset v Hampshire (at Taunton) June 12th Somerset v Surrey (at Taunton) June 13th Glamorgan v Somerset

(There is a chance that Gayle will not arrive in Taunton until May 29th depending on his progress in the Indian Premier League with the Royal Challengers Bangalore).

Gayle has proven pedigree across all forms of the game having 103 test matches (7,214 runs) and 268 ODI's (9,160 runs) under his belt.

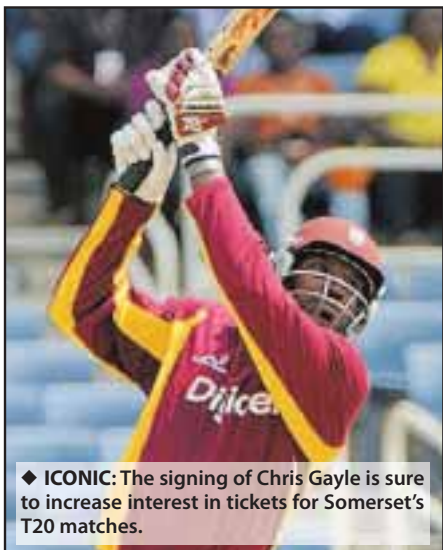

But it is in the T20 format that he really has shone. Gayle has played 240 20 overs matches and clubbed a colossal 573 maximums during that time!

A former captain of the West Indies - in all formats - Gayle had a mixed time at the soon to be completed 50 over World Cup in Australia having broken the competition record with a jaw-dropping 215 against Zimbabwe in Canberra - although this was subsequently topped by New Zealander Martin Guptill's unbeaten 237 just days later.

But this was tempered by a back injury that will keep the Jamaican out of the upcoming three test series on home soil against England.

Tickets for T20 matches at Taunton are available at £20ea or £109 for a block of all seven home matches - see club website for more details and availability.

◆ ICONIC: The signing of Chris Gayle is sure to increase interest in tickets for Somerset's T20 matches.

Bridport experiences world class squash

MEMBERS of Bridport Squash and Racketball Club were treated to an exhibition of top quality singles and doubles squash by three world class players last Friday writes Roger Lewis.

The packed audience marvelled at the talents of England international and professional Eddie Charlton who at the height of his career was ranked 51 in the world, and also plays number one for Nottingham in the PSL, as well as Emma Beddoes and Kirsty McPhee.

Beddoes is a leading professional lady player and junior England international who is currently ranked 16th in the world, her highest to date, whilst McPhee is a professional squash coach who in her playing career was world ranked 53 and is now resident at Pontefract and Leeds University.

Also on court were Chapel Allerton's gifted number five Adam Wellstead, along with Bridport's own talented coach Jason Martin.

The format was for the some of the top Bridport players to pit their wits against the professionals in fifteen minute sessions and to see how many points could be scored against them.

What everybody saw was how the game was played, involving a wide variation of shots from deep boasts, accurate serving, trick shots which wrong footed a lot of the amateurs, and good length shots along with the tactical play.

Following this the crowd were treated to an exhibition match between Charlton and Wellstead which demonstrated the demands of playing squash at a very high level. With all the shots in the book being played, it resulted in a series of long rallies developing, proving that you have to be very fit to play squash at a high level.

Martin and Wellstead produced another brilliant exhibition of match play with both players not giving an inch in a very tight best of three games which was eventually won by Wellstead.

A wonderful display of two top quality doubles matches followed. The first saw Wellstead & Martin play Charlton & McPhee. This had everything; fine trick, drop shots, tactical shots and a lot of deception.

During the doubles match, Bridport's up and coming 15-year old youngster Kyle Jennings teamed up with Charlton against Martin & McPhee.

To see young Jennings partnering Charlton to victory and not be overawed as he demonstrated his knowledge of the game, really was the highlight of the evening.

Bees news

Goal drought finally ends as Bees go nap

Bridport 5 Bishop Sutton 1

Toolstation Premier - att; 121

AFTER four games of firing blanks Bridport broke the shackles to hit bottom side Bishop Sutton for five at St Mary's Field, and with a little bit more luck, and better finishing, it could have been many more.

After 10 games without a victory the Bees went into the match needing a victory to boost their confidence which had been low of late, and with the Bishops not having won since November and suffering 15 consecutive losses since, it was the ideal opportunity.

They even gave the Bees a man advantage for the first ten minutes because three players, including the two subs, were delayed due to traffic congestion on the M5.

Tom Richardson should have given the Bees a fifth minute lead when he broke through but he took so long deciding his options, defenders got back to shut him out.

Richardson almost scored a minute later when Adam Symes put Warren Byerley through but his goalbound effort was superbly blocked by Ashley Milkins.

As the ball broke loose Richardson produced a excellent overhead kick which brought an equally brilliant reaction save from keeper George Dempsey diving low to his left to palm it away.

Finally Szymon Gromek arrived to make up the numbers and almost immediately Andy Elcock set up Tom Palmer but his shot was wide of the far post.

Then Matt Morley broke down the left before crossing to the near post where defender George Thorne deflected the ball onto his own post.

The breakthrough came on 20 minutes when Richardson beat his marker before playing the ball down the channel to Byerley who turned inside his marker and stroked the ball across Dempsey into the far corner of the net.

They doubled the lead two minutes later when Richardson rose at the far post to head home Dan Wise's corner from six yards.

Despite Bridport's dominance, captain Jake McCormick worked hard leading the line, and he was almost rewarded on the half hour, but his 25-yard shot was inches wide of the upright.

Bridport increased their lead on 37 minutes and effectively sealed the points when Matt Condliffe's cross from found Chris Clarke at the far post whose downward header was push it up into the net by Dempsey.

Woodwork...again!

Morley almost added a fourth in first half add time when his cross drifted over Dempsey's head but hit the inside of the far post before being hacked away.

Bridport were rocked three minutes after the break when the Bishops pulled a goal back when Gromek nodded Dan Sheldon's cross in off the post.

Bridport's reply was instant, and straight from the kick-off man of the match Sean Stewart played in Morley who drew Dempsey before calmly chipping the keeper.

Byerley almost added another two minutes later with a spectacular overhead bicycle kick that rattled the crossbar.

The woodwork came to the visitors' aid twice more when first Byerley's cross hit a defender and struck the bar, before Morley's run and cross was cut out by Thorne who, for the second time in the game, deflected the ball on to the post.

He finally got on the scoresheet on 78 minutes when he deflected sub Chris Senior's angled shot into the net to complete the scoring, before Bridport struck the woodwork for a sixth time following a deflected Richardson shot.

Manager Trevor Senior said: "It's strange; I didn't really enjoy the game that much. The players seemed a little unsettled; I think it was frustration, and they were desperate to get a win which will lift everybody now."

"But fair play to them (Bishop Sutton) they kept going all the time. They weren't great, but I thought McCormick worked hard on his own up front, Gromek was strong and the keeper made a few good saves."

"The only disappointing thing was the goal we conceded which was a free header, but all in all it was a win we needed."

"We could have done with a few more goals to boost the goal difference, but at least we created quite a few chances and hit the woodwork a number of times."

"I thought Sean Stewart deserved the MoM award he covered a lot of ground and worked hard, and Matt Morley got in some good crosses."

With only five games left, Senior is looking to pick up maximum points over Easter with games away at STREET (Good Friday) and home to GILLINGHAM Town on Easter Monday (1pm ko).

Water tight Ressies

HAMWORTHY UTD RES 0 BRIDPORT RES 2

THE pleasing thing about this win from manager Robin Townsend's point of view was the fact that his charges had kept a clean sheet for the fourth consecutive game against second bottom side Hamworthy United Reserves.

The Bees manager said: "It was a regulation win and we should have scored a lot more, but the pleasing aspect was that we kept another clean sheet."

Dan Peart gave them the lead after 10 minutes with a cross-cum-shot that flew into the top corner giving the keeper no chance.

Top scorer Jack Scovell was then rewarded for his hard work when he added a second towards the end with a shot from 18 yards high into the net.

Townsend, who stands down at the end of the season, was pleased with the general display of his team but once again was critical of the chances they spurned.

"They didn't trouble us throughout the game, although I thought they might give it a go in the second half when we were only a goal up, but didn't, and the nearest they came to scoring was a free kick that went over the bar."

"However, we didn't take our chances again. We had four very good opportunities in the first half but only took one, and it was similar in the second half."

The Ressies have a busy fixture list before their Dorset Senior Trophy final against CHICKERELL UNITED on Tuesday, April 28th.

They were due to meet PORTLAND UNITED at St Mary's last night, before entertaining CRANBORNE on Saturday. They then travel to second place HAMWORTHY RECREATION on Easter Monday.

School Sports

Woodroffe Under 13s cricketers find it tough

THE Woodroffe School Under 13s produced a valiant effort when they represented West Dorset in the recent Dorset County Girls Indoor Cricket Finals.

Divided into two round-robin groups of three, they lost the toss in the first game against Bournemouth Grammar School and were asked to bat.

Gemma Bowditch got the game off to a great start when she hit the first ball back over the bowlers head for four whilst Georgie Machin played sensibly and scored six before she was bowled.

The batsmen that followed played some aggressive shots but found themselves caught out off the sidewalls, and so an innings that had started positively subsided to 27 all out.

Katie Henderson opened the bowling in reply and took a wicket in her first over, before bagging another in her second. Clara Jeavons also took two wickets in her overs but she could not stop the BSG batsman from reaching their target.

In the second game against Glenmoor, Woodroffe once again lost the toss and were asked to bat.

This time they showed a lot more resilience. Bowditch batted through the innings for 14 not out ably supported by Henderson (9) and Machin (6) as Woodroffe totalled 84.

Once again Henderson had success in her first over taking a wicket and only conceding eight runs, but unfortunately the other bowlers could not take any more wickets and it was left to Jeavons to bowl the last over with Glenmoor needing only four to win.

It looked as though the captain might pull it off when a smart piece of fielding produced a run out, but it was not to be; Glenmoor passed the total with two balls to spare.

Coach Eddie Clarke said: "The girls can be proud of themselves. They have made excellent progress in the short time that they have been learning the game."

◆ GREAT EXPERIENCE: The Woodroffe Under 13s girls cricket team who represented West Dorset.

Ton up Max going strong

BRIDPORT & West Dorset Bowling Club member Max Dare has just celebrated playing his 100th game for Dorset.

Max is one of the town's best known characters, and in addition to being a top bowler, he is also a big skittler and huge supporter of Bridport Football Club.

Spokesperson Brian Baker said: "Max is playing as good as ever and still relatively young in the bowls world, so he could go on and smash all appearance records for the county."

Bridport wrapped up their mixed friendly season with another fine win, beating Gillingham 90-58 overall.

Top rink award went to Gerry Moss, Penny Pitther, Jill Harding and Martin Wilton. A good start put them 10-2 up after six ends which they increased to 18-5 by the end of the tenth, before finally winning 27-11.

Robin Pitther, Beryl Stork, Brian Prtt and Keith Jenkins were 14-15 down, before a great 2,3,6,1 finish gave them a 26-5 win. Sylvia and Mike Fletcher, Rosie Wilton and David Aylott were also trailing 10-11, but turned it round with a 1,4,4,1,1,1 burst to record a 19-12 victory.

Pat and Robin Cowmeadow, Barbara Jenkins and Phil Hedges looked like taking another scalp as they led 18-12 after 17 ends, but the visitors had some cheer as they finished 3,2,1,2 for a 20-18 win.

INSIDE: West Indies legend on his way

Lyme held, but still on course for promotion

DESPITE being held to a 1-1 draw at Exmouth Amateurs Reserves it was a case of 'nothing spoilt' as Lyme Regis continue their hunt for a second-placed finish behind Henry's Cronies in the Devon & Exeter League Division Three.

Strengthened opponents

It should have been better for Lyme, but some below-par performances from key players against a side boasting half of the 'Ammies Division One first team, meant a point, after a fine equalising goal from defender Keiren White, was all that they could bring home.

But, with rivals Exmouth Town Reserves being held to the same scoreline at Tedburn St Mary and Woodbury surprisingly being beaten 1-0 at Axmouth United, the Seasiders are effectively one game closer to the runners-up spot.

Next up for Lyme is a trip to mid-

Devon to take on Thorverton (3pm ko, postcode for Raddon Road Ground ground is EX5 5NN).

Meanwhile, Lyme Regis Reserves certainly tested the resolve of high-flying South Petherton before going down 3-2 in the PSDL Premier Division clash at the Davey Fort.

But Lyme Bantams at least had something to show for their efforts as they came from 3-1 down to draw 3-3 away at Luso-Chard.

Both the Lyme second and third teams have no fixture next Saturday.

It was a disappointing weekend for UPLYME with both teams being beaten.

The first team crashed out of the Jack Venn Cup after going down 3-0 in the quarter-final tie at Crewkerne Rangers while the Reserves were beaten 4-2 on their own Venlake turf by lowly Chard United Allstars.

The Swallows' Reserves have no fixture next weekend while the first team turn their attention back to their bid to beat relegation from Division Two when they head off to Netherbury to take on Waytown Hounds who still have a slim chance of promotion.

Finally, the struggles continue over at Barrs Lane for CHARMOUTH. To be fair nobody would have expected anything other than a defeat in the Jack Venn cup-tie against a Drimpton side that is clearly playing at the wrong level.

But the manner of the subsequent 11-1 mauling disappointed outgoing manager Paul Grinter who said his side 'Lacked enthusiasm.'

Charmouth have no fixture on Saturday.
